MR. BLAINE TALKS BACK

The Secretary's Sharp Reply to the Italian Premier.

MISTAKES OF THE LATTER CORRECTED.

The American Statesman Flatly Contradicts the Assertion That He Was Guilty of Making Use of a Confidential Dispatch.

RUDINI'S "FATAL ERROR."

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The following dispatch was sent by Secretary Blaine Monday:

"DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON, May 4, 1891.—Porter, American Minister, Rome: A series of statements addressed to the Marquis Imperiali by the Marquis Rudini was telegraphed from Rome yesterday and was published by the press of the United States to-day. The only part of the Marquis Rudini's communication which this government desires to notice is the one here quoted—namely:

"'I have now before me a note addressed to you by Secretary Blaine April 14. Its perusal produces a most painful impression upon me. I will not stop to lay stress upon the lack of conformity with diplomatic usages displayed in making use, as Mr. Blaine did not hesitate to do, of a portion of a telegram of mine communicated to him in strict confidence in order to get rid of a question clearly defined in our official documents, which alone possesses diplomatic value.'

"The telegram of March 14, concerning whose public use the Marquis Rudini complains, is the following, which was quoted in full in my note of April 14 to Marquis Imperiali, charge of Italy, at this capital:

"'ROME, March 24.—Italian minister, Washington: Our requests to the federal government are simple. Some Italian subjects acquitted by the American magistrates have been murdered in prison while under the immediate protection of the authorities. Our right therefore to demand and obtain the punishment of the murderers and an indemnity for the victims is unquestionable. I wish to add that the public opinion in Italy is justly impatient, and if concrete provisions were not at once taken I should find myself in the painful necessity of showing openly our dissatisfaction by recalling the minister of his majesty from a country where he is unable to obtain justice. RUDINI.'

"The intimation of the Marquis Rudini that the telegram in question was delivered in strict confidence is a total error. As the telegram expressed the demand of the Italian government it was impossible that Marquis Rudini could transmit it in strict confidence. As I have already stated, it was communicated to me in person by Baron Fava, written in English in his own handwriting, without a suggestion of privacy, and the telegram itself has not a single mark upon it denoting a confidential character. I have caused a number of copies of the telegram to be forwarded to you in fac simile. The usual mark for italic printing was made by me under four lines and they appear in the copies. You will use the fac similes in such manner as will most effectually prove the error into which the Marquis Rudini has fallen. BLAINE."

WASHINGTON, May 5. — It is not thought Minister Porter will be withdrawn from Rome for awhile yet. From the beginning the policy of Secretary Blaine was not to dignify the childish cause of Marquis di Rudini in any way, and the sudden withdrawal of Minister Porter would be giving the affair too much importance. It is therefore probable that Minister Porter will not come home on leave of absence for a time yet. The diplomatic correspondence with regard to the New Orleans lynching will go on in the usual way. Marquis Imperiali will keep on transacting the "current business" between his government and the United States, while the Rudini ministry may do whatever it pleases to satisfy the home sentiment.

"I ALONE AM MASTER."

Kaiser William Asserts Himself in Unequivocal Style.

DUSSELDORF, May 5.—At a banquet in his honor Monday evening Emperor William made a significant speech, in which, after dilating upon his desire for peace and for the protection of the rights of labor, and after expressing satisfaction at the conclusion of the commercial treaty with Austria, he said: "As to the home policy which is becoming established I shall not deviate a hair's breadth from the course I have adopted. I alone am master in this country and nobody else." This emphatic language in regard to the treaty with Austria which Prince Bismarck opposes and also in regard to home affairs was evidently directed at Prince Bismarck.

HE CANNOT SURVIVE.

Ex-Gov. Crittenden, of Missouri, Suddenly Stricken—His Physicians Say He Must Die.

KANSAS CITY, MO., May 5.—Ex-Gov. Thomas T. Crittenden was stricken Monday evening with a fatal illness. He was taken suddenly ill after returning home from his office. Physicians were immediately summoned, and examination showed that the ex-governor was suffering from a ruptured blood vessel at the base of the brain. The attending physicians say recovery is impossible. Mr. Crittenden served in the union army during the civil war as lieutenant-colonel, was elected to congress in 1872 and again in 1876 and was elected governor of Missouri in 1878.

The Jury Couldn't Agree.

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—A dispatch from Trenton, Mo., says the case of Joseph Howell, tried for the murder of Mrs. Minnie Hall and her four children, January 19, 1889, near Brookfield, Mo., which has been on trial here since Wednesday, was given to the jury Sunday. After being out fourteen hours they returned without a verdict and were discharged. The case will come up for trial again next August.

President Harrison's Summer Home.

WASHINGTON, May 5. — When the president and Mrs. Harrison return from their western trip they will take up their residence at Cape May Point. It is Mrs. Harrison's intention to have a number of improvements and changes made in the white house during her absence. The president will spend as much of his time as possible at Cape May Point.

Death of a Kentucky Judge.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 5.—Judge Michael H. Owsley, one of the most eminent jurists and prominent politicians in Kentucky, died suddenly at Lancaster, Ky., after a brief illness, from pneumonia. He was a candidate for governor in 1883, when Proctor Knott received the nomination.

Steel Works Burned.

TROY, N. Y., May 5.—A fire in the steel works at Breaker island Monday caused a loss of $400,000. Several Westinghouse engines were destroyed. Nearly 1,000 people are deprived of work.

Perished in the Flames.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 5.—At 3 o'clock a. m., Monday a two-story building at 148 Nassau street was destroyed by fire and Herman Stephanski and his wife were burned to death.

BOGOTA IN DANGER.

The South American City Threatened With a Great Disaster—Floods in Chili.

PANAMA, April 25.—In Bogota, Colombia, the Monserrate and Guadaloupe hills threaten to slide on the city and citizens are alarmed. The municipality has appointed a committee to consult with the minister of public works and other officials and to agree as to the measures to be adopted in order to avert the catastrophe which threatens the city. The engineer of the Girard railroad has made a report which shows that the city is in immediate danger, as already some houses have been damaged and the center of the city is undermined by water.

Regarding the floods in the Lunahuana district of Chile the Lima Opinion Nationale has published the following letter:

"The beautiful valley of Lunahuana, Chili, has experienced a topographical change, and that which was formally a delightful spot is now a desert. Fifteen craters have been continually at work since Sunday, the 22d, throwing out masses of mud, which in its precipitate descent and with the monstrous strength of the current is carrying ruin in all directions, and sweeping houses before it together with their inhabitants and the cattle, vineyards, farms and irrigation works. All the roads north and south of Lunahuana have been converted into ditches, through which water is continually pouring, and all communication between Canette and Chincha is interrupted."

Italy Becoming Depopulated.

ROME, May 5.—America is draining away the population of some portions of Italy with remarkable rapidity. The exodus is most marked at the Polesine region, where 400 out of 2,000 families have emigrated this year. Ninety-five families left Crespino together last week. Gavello, which a year ago had 5,000 inhabitants, now has but 800. The effect of such numerous departures are beginning to be shown in an alarming manner. Husbandry and trade languish for lack of suitable employes. The authorities would gladly adopt some method of checking the movement.

Hirsch Denies the Story.

LONDON, May 5.—The Graphic says it has Baron Hirsch's authority to deny that he has bought land in Pennsylvania for a Jewish colony. It says the scheme to devote £3,000,000 to assisting Jewish emigration is only in embryo. At present the baron is only assisting in sending Jews to the Argentine republic, although he is looking to other available colonies in South America for a large scheme of emigration which is still undefined.

Another Vacant Mission.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The coming home of Charles Emory Smith on two months' leave of absence from St. Petersburg means that the president will have still another important mission to fill some time this summer. It is well known and understood that the Philadelphia editor is not going back to the Neva.

Flames in a Michigan Town.

EDWARDSBURG, Mich., May 5.—Fire broke out in Devers' blacksmith shop about 2 o'clock Monday morning, destroying Devers' blacksmith shop, Runkle's storage building, Runkle & Parson's double brick store, Bean & Son's drug store and Mrs. Latson's millinery store. Loss about $25,900; no insurance.

State Boards of Health.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The national conference of state boards of health began its session Monday at the Ebbit house. Officers were elected as follows: President; Dr. J. N. McCormack, of Kentucky; secretary, Dr. C. O. Probst, of Ohio; treasurer, Dr. Henry B. Baker, of Michigan.

He Did It Alone.

MILWAUKEE, May 5.—John Bernhardt, who was brought here from Waukesha early Monday morning to escape lynching, has confessed that he alone murdered and robbed Henry Schley, the Waukesha saloon keeper, who was found dead near his home early Sunday morning.

Boers on the Warpath.

LONDON, May 5.—Dispatches from Transvaal, South Africa, report that 20,000 Boers are on the point of invading Mashonaland or Manicaland, and the authorities of Transvaal are unable to fulfill their promise to prevent any further encroachments on British territory.

Heavy Failure.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Jesse H. Lippincott, sole lessee of the American Graphophone Company and president of the North American Phonograph Company, with an office at 10 Wall street, has assigned. The liabilities are estimated at $500,000 and the assets at $40,000.

May Be Reopened.

LONDON, May 5.—The Pall Mall Gazette says important facts have been furnished by outside parties to the queen's proctor, sufficient to call for the reopening of the O'Shea divorce case.

THEY THREW HIM OUT

A Turbulent Scene in the French Chamber of Deputies.

M. CONSTANS FIERCELY DENOUNCED.

He Is Called a Murderer by M. Roche, and the Latter Is Expelled by Force—Debate on the Fourmies Massacre Causes Trouble.

TURMOIL IN FRANCE.

PARIS, May 5. — It was announced that a section of the left would join with the socialist and Boulangist deputies in demanding a vote of censure Monday against M. Constans, the minister of the interior, on the ground that the latter was responsible for the slaughter of the men, women and children shot down by the troops at Fourmies on Labor day. M. Constans on Monday, after replying in explanatory terms to a question as to the Fourmies affair and giving his version of the matter, holding that neither the governor nor the troops were to blame for the disaster, was astonished to see M. Roche, the deputy representing the Seventeenth electoral district of the Seine, spring to his feet and shout fiercely: "Murderer!"

A tremendous sensation followed. Members shouted at and threatened each other vigorously. Finally order was restored and the chamber voted that M. Roche should be excluded from any further participation in Monday's session and that he should be declared censured by the chamber for the term he had applied to the minister of the interior.

No sooner was this course of action decided upon than M. Roche again sprung to his feet and, shaking his fist at those of his associates who had been most active in bringing about his proposed expulsion and censure, the angry deputy yelled: "You are a lot of varlets worthy of your master."

This was more than the presiding officer could submit to, so he ordered M. Roche to be removed by force from the chamber. This was eventually done amid one of the wildest scenes ever witnessed in the chamber of deputies.

Quiet having been restored, M. Milleraud demanded that a committee be appointed to inquire into the Fourmies riot. M. Milleraud's motion was rejected—371 to 48. The chamber of deputies by a vote of 356 to 33 passed a resolution declaring confidence in the government.

VIENNA, May 5. — A large crowd assembled around the prison at Beks Monday demanding the release of the prisoners arrested for participating in labor riots. The women were at the fore front. They spit upon and bared their breasts, crying: "Cut us down with your bayonets; we will not move without our brothers."

FOURMIES, May 5.—The funeral procession of the victims of the May-day riot was very long, being participated in by a large number of workmen's clubs with red and black flags draped. The nine coffins were surrounded by the relatives of the victims. After the religious service the clergy left and the socialists then took charge, some violent addresses being delivered. Many women carrying banners placed wreaths upon the graves. The troops keeping order in the streets shouldered arms while the coffins were passing.

ROME, May 5.—The funeral of the gend'arme who was killed during the riots on Labor day took place here Monday. The body was followed to the grave by all the civil authorities of this city. There was no disorder among the crowds of people who lined the streets through which the funeral procession passed. The chamber of deputies by a vote of 235 to 115 has approved the action taken by the government on May day.

BRUSSELS, May 5.—The miners' and iron-workers' strike in the Liege and Charleoid district is complete and is spreading to the Borinage district, in the province of Hainaut. Fifty thousand men are out of work in central Belgium. There has been more rioting at Liege. Several more people have been injured.

LONDON, May 5.—The bricklayers in most of the centers of England have gone out on strike. The men demand an increase in the wages paid them. As the present period of the year is the most brisk and busy time for building trades, the strike of the bricklayers is causing much annoyance to contractors and others, and has also thrown out of work large numbers of men belonging to the associated trades, who are compelled to remain idle so long as the bricklayers refuse to work.

VIENNA, May 5.—Fifteen thousand weavers at Bielitz and 2,000 employes at Pesth have been dismissed for being absent from work May day.

Asphyxiated.

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—Miss Caroline Abend, aged 62 years, was found dead in bed Sunday morning at the residence of her brother, Edward Abend, at Belleville. In the room was a gas stove which was used for heating purposes. One of the cocks was found open, and it is supposed that Miss Abend arose in the night to turn off the heat and accidentally left the cock open.

Terrible Tragedy.

BERLIN, May 5.—Henrich Seidel, a house owner in the Hochenstrasse, Breslau, cut his wife's throat, shot his 16-year-old daughter dead and blew his own brains out. Domestic quarrels led to the tragedy.

Indicted.

NEW YORK, May 5.—The president and cashier of the North River bank, now in the hand of a receiver, have been indicted for falsifying an official statement of the bank's condition.

Four Persons Drowned.

POMEROY, O., May 5.—Bertha McCain, Lutie Ridenour, Charles Frank and Smith McDole were drowned at Shad river Sunday while returning from a dance in West Virginia.

1864—The dreadful "Battle of the Wilderness" began; on the same day the contest at Rocky Face Ridge, Ga., began; there were also three cavalry battles and three gunboat battles at widely separated points; 3 important battles.
1875—Heinrich George August Ewald, philologist, theologian, historian and reformer, died; born in 1803.

SENDING CRIMINALS TO AMERICA.

A short time ago there arrived in New York from Germany a man who, on being detained by the superintendent of immigration, testified that he had been a criminal in his native land, and that his passage to this country was paid for by the authorities in the town of Staugsch, Germany. According to his statement he had been imprisoned one year for murder, when he was declared insane and was confined in an insane asylum for twenty-four years, from which he was discharged something over a year ago, and that at his own request he was sent to America.

Secretary Foster will be backed by the American people in adopting the most searching measures to prevent the landing of such undesirable immigrants on our shores. It is perhaps safe to assume that, if the custom reported does prevail to any extent among the petty states of Germany, it is not known to the imperial government. But in any event the matter calls for prompt and thorough investigation, and it is to be expected that United States ministers and consuls abroad will be instructed to give it the attention which its importance demands.

A legal victory has been won by the Louisiana Lottery Company, a legal victory which will greatly aid in the perpetuation of that concern unless the people of Louisiana show their appreciation of the disgrace which it brings upon the state by voting against its franchise at the next election. The Louisiana Company is ready to spend millions of dollars to retain the advantages it has long enjoyed, and large numbers of voters are already favorable to it. With strong influences in favor of the perpetuation of this harmful monopoly it will require all the earnestness of its opponents to secure such an awakening of public sentiment as will result in the defeat of the constitutional amendment which was passed by the last legislature. The decision of the Louisiana supreme court in favor of the lottery was agreed to by only three out of five judges, and it is a great pity that the company's evil influence could not have been suppressed by a ruling of the court against it. The struggling against this debauching agency is now transferred to the polls, and the people of Louisiana will be responsible if it longer continues to work evil among the residents of all the states of the union.

Some very clever stories are being told of "Old Hatch," the Chicago speculator, to illustrate his sagacity in discovering pecuniary opportunities. One of these stories is in effect that he noticed the windows of a big carpet store decorated with placards stating that prices were reduced, as the whole stock of the concern was to be closed out. Struck with a sudden idea he went in, asked the price of several lines of good, the qualities in stock and the original prices. Having indeed gone practically through the place he sent for the heads of the firm and coolly made them a lump sum offer for the whole stock good-will and fixtures of the concern. The bid was accepted, and "Old Hutch" at once gave his check. Then, without leaving the place, he sent for a relative, who, by the way, was in another line of trade, and informed him that he wanted him to take charge of his new acquisition and run it, adding: "At the price I paid there is money in it." Events proved the correctness of his judgment, and the business so summarily purchased is still in successful operation.

The decision rendered a few days ago by the New York court of appeals in the Bedell forgery cases, renews the complaint of bank officials that legislation and the action of the courts have put upon them an undue responsibility for forged signatures and indorsements, so that loss which is at times caused by the carelessness of other people falls upon them. The English courts have not construed the law so harshly against the banks, and an earnest effort will be made by the bank officers in this country to secure legislation in the future relieving them from some part of the liability which now oppresses them.

Prince Bismarck's election to the German reichstag, it is authoratively announced in court circles, will not alter the kaiser's policy. In that event, the news from Germany should at once assume an even more than ordinary interest. The kaiser is bent on having his own way, and Bismarck in the reichstag was long accustomed to having his. Factions anxious for the ex-chancellor's support will be interested in seeing fair play.

It is not known at this time just when Mayor St. John will convene the council in special session. All licenses expire to-day, and it was first whispered that all saloons would close until the council took action. Two parties who deposited their license fee last week, and opened their saloons for business, were closed on Saturday by Marshal Acheson, on the ground that they had no license. It is quietly hinted that this rule will be enforced in regard to other saloons, in which case there is likely to be a severe drouth in the city.

Pan-American is a good name for a university on the Gulf of Mexico, which shall be devoted to the languages, laws and customs of the American republics. It is proposed to organize and establish such an institution. Education, following hard upon reciprocity and a Pan-American railroad, will complete the commercial union which should obtain among the among the people of all Americas.

Now that Venezuela has stepped into line with an executive order removing the duty from American cereals, reciprocity and republicanism shake hands across the gulf of Mexico.

A Dream of Fair Women.

Tennyson, in this exquisite poem, dreams of a long procession of lovely women of ages past. This is all very well, but the laureate would have done the world a greater service if he had only told the women of the present how they could improve their health and enhance their charms. This he might easily have done by recommending the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Health is the best friend of beauty, and the innumerable ills to which women are peculiarly subject, its worst enemies. Long experience has proven that the health of womankind and the "Favorite Prescription" walk hand in hand, and are inseparable. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

MOXIE HALF A DAY OF NEW AND VIGOROUS LIFE IN EVERY BOTTLE.
A harmless, simple food that supersedes the use of stimulants and nervines; recovers nervousness, insomina, nervous and mental exhaustion, and effects of dissipation at once.
In 1883, while hunting for health in South America, LIEUTENANT MOXIE found the people using what they called FOOD PLANT as we do greens. Surprised at its effect on his own nervous system, he shipped a bale to Dr. Thompson, asking him to determine its character. Wherever used, the patient said: "It gives me a solid, durable strength and very good appetite." It cured anything caused by nervous exhaustion; it restored nervous people who were tired out mentally or physically, stopped the appetite for intoxicants, cured insanity, blindness from overtaxing the sight, paralysis, headache, loss of manhood from excesses, made people able to stand twice their amount of work, mentally and physically, with less fatigue. It was found to be neither medicine nor stimulant, but a nerve food as harmless as milk. Women say: "My nervousness and exhaustion went like magic." For sale everywhere.

A TITIAN OWNED BY INDIANS.

The Great Art Treasure Hidden Away in a Mexican Village Church.

Tzintzuntzan was once a great city and the capital of Tarascan kings; now only a straggling village with a group of ruined churches. I made my way quickly to the old tower where the Titian treasure is, the populace following in my wake or gazing after me with wondering eyes. My carefully studied salutation, in Spanish, a handful of cigars and a bottle of wine soon made the padre and myself the best of friends. He seemed to know before I asked him that I wanted to see the picture, and opened the high arched door of carved wood which led to a patio or court.

Here, seated on mats spread on the stone paving of a pillared and arched corridor, were fifteen or twenty women with their work, braiding mats and hats or coloring feathers. As was explained, they were doing penance. They bowed reverently as the padre passed. I thought he did not look like a hard task master, and, perhaps, did not care how long they staid, as his life is a lonely one at best and their penance surely was not his.

A little surpliced Indian boy came with a lighted candle, the padre led the way, and a wondering little procession followed through a dark corridor that led up to another massive door, barred and chained and padlocked. We were back in ancient feudal days, it seemed, and some old castle had opened to us. It might be that the clanking chains and rusty, creaking hinges were on our prison doors, but the boy held the tallow dip high and showed the padre's kindly face, that reassured us that we were only at Tzintzuntzan in search of a Titian.

The door opened into an inner room as dark as night. The padre unfastened a grated window and a flood of golden sunlight came from over the western hills beyond the lake and fell upon the picture. Such coloring, such feeling could only come from a master hand. Whose? Tradition says Titian, and presented by Philip II of Spain. Eminent men, authors and artists agree. We had seen the Titian at Tzintzuntzan, and it was worth the coming for.

The padre closed the window and the door after us, locked and chained it again, the boy held up his flickering torch and we marched out, leaving the padre and his treasures as a dream too unreal to be true. An effort has been made to buy the painting, and $50,000 was offered by the bishop of Mexico, but the faithful, devoted Indians refused, and the price that bought "The Angelus" would be no temptation. "The Entombment" is some hundreds of years older, is the work of an old master and is big enough (the figures are all life size) to make a hundred of "The Angelus."—Toronto Globe.

Interesting to Steel Manufacturers.

A very ingenious device has been introduced that will prove of great value to steel manufacturers. In the formation of cast steel ingots, especially those containing a large proportion of carbon, it is common for the shrinkage of the metal when poured into the ingot mold to form a cavity or cavities in the upper end of the ingot, and if such cavity be exposed to the atmosphere its walls become speedily oxidized, and in that condition are incapable of welding closely.

The new idea is to chill the top of the casting, and then turn the ingot upside down before it is solidified. The cavity then forms in the other end of the ingot, where its walls are fully protected against the oxidizing influence of the atmosphere. The molds are arranged in such a manner that the cavity is formed in a stud or projection at one end of the ingot. In order to protect the metal first poured in from hardening too rapidly a cup of refractory material is placed in the bottom of the mold.—New York Telegram.

Wise Expense.

The old Latin proverb, "Difficilia quæ pulchra," has often been set as a "copy" for high school boys and girls. The idea in it is that "the best things are hard to get," and certainly a good personal education usually implies a sacrificing parent as well as a studious child.

An Englishman visiting Sweden and noticing the care for educating children, who were gathered up from the streets and highways and placed in school, inquired if it was not costly.

"Yes," was the answer, "it is costly, but not dear. We Swedes are not rich enough to allow a child to grow up in ignorance, misery and crime, to become a scourge to society as well as a disgrace to himself."

It was an English judge who first said, "A boy is better unborn than untaught."—Youth's Companion.

Shelling Peas by Machine.

An Albany firm has gotten out a patent on a device for shelling peas. The novelty about this machine is that the peas are cut down like wheat or barley, and the vine and pea are all fed into the machine, which separates the green pea from the vine and pod perfectly fine and clean. The machines are large, being 16 feet long, 11 high and 6 wide. The company do not sell these machines, but let them out on a royalty, and they are in great demand in all places where canned goods are put up, as they make a very great saving in the harvesting of peas.—New York Telegram.

One of the recent applications of electricity that promises to be of considerable benefit to seagoing men is a log for registering the rate of travel of high speed vessels.

O! The Misery of It.

Human wretchedness touches bottom in sea sickness. Life is held a feather's weight by the unfortunate afflicted with it. Why endure its atrocious internal convulsions when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters relieves them instanter? Not only relieves, but prevents. It is not always on the "briny" that traveler's nausea is experienced. Railway journeying, riding with one's back to the horses or the locomotive sometimes produces it in super-sensitive stomachs. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is always the prompt remedy. The mischievous properties of brackish water; the evil influence of miasma, unwholesome or unaccustomed food, excessive fatigue, whether bodily or mental, the dyspeptic tendency bred by sedentary pursuits, the pernicious effects of exposure to extremes of temperature or dampness, all these are effectually counteracted by this genial preservative of health. Cures also rheumatism, kidney and bilious trouble.

Officers and Coke Strikers Engage in a Fight.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., May 5.—Another collision has occurred between the coke strikers and deputies, the result being one striker dead and one seriously wounded. Sunday night Superintendent Gray and Pit Boss Callaghan, of Leisenring No. 3, went to house No. 17 to rescue two of the men who had been at work and were being held at that house by the strikers. They were set upon and stoned and the deputies came to their aid. One of the strikers tried to take a gun from one of the deputies, when a shot was fired by the strikers. Superintendent Gray then ordered the deputies to fire, and in the volley which followed John Mahan, a striker, fell dead, and another, whose name is not known, received a mortal wound. The strikers then scattered, and the two men who were held prisoners were rescued and taken to Leisenring. The situation is now reported quiet.

Superintendent Gray, Mine Boss Callahan and Yard Boss Agnew were arrested for murder and given a preliminary hearing before Squire Cottom, of Dunbar, who held the defendants for trial. Commitments were issued and they were taken to jail. The testimony adduced placed the blame of the shooting on Gray.

THEY WILL NOT CONFER.

CHICAGO, May 5.—Northern Illinois coal operators met Monday and decided to refuse the request of Messrs. Young and Ross, of the executive board of United Mine Workers, for a joint conference to discuss the question of prices for the coming year. All the fields were represented. This flat refusal to treat with the mine workers is an invitation to strike if the men are disposed to begin one. In past years when the northern Illinois workers have struck those in the southern part of the state have handicapped them by continuing their labors, the market being supplied with increased product from southern mines. There is no reason to suppose that in the event of a strike now the southern workers would also quit. But an arrangement is said to have been made by which the southern operators will supply the northern operators, or vice versa, in case of a strike in either section. This complicates the situation.

TO WORK AT THE OLD PRICE.

BRAZIL, Ind., May 5.—A large mass-meeting of the block-coal miners was held at the courthouse Monday. The secretary read a proposition from the operators, which was accepted. The miners return to work at last year's prices, signing a contract for a year.

MINERS AT EVANSVILLE GO OUT.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 5.—The coal miners' strike was declared on Monday morning. All the miners and others employed in the vicinity of Evansville, numbering about 600 or 700 men, are out, and declare that they will remain out until the operators accede to their demands for the eight-hour day. The strike is under the charge of a committee appointed by the central labor union. In case no agreement is reached between the operators and miners a cooperative mine will be opened somewhere near the city limits.

MORE STRIKES AT ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—Thirteen hundred more men struck Monday. Six hundred brotherhood painters demand thirty-five cents an hour, and 700 sheet-iron cornice workers are also endeavoring to enforce their demands. The difference of opinion that existed between the marble-setters and their employers has been settled by the employers conceding what the men demanded—three dollars for eight hours' work. The carpenters held a secret meeting Monday afternoon and decided to place before the union the refusal of the bosses to pay forty cents an hour. This will be done to-day. Three hundred of them are still on strike.

LABOR TROUBLES ELSEWHERE.

CHICAGO, May 5.—The cigarmakers, 1,700 in number, struck at 8 a. m. Monday, but 1,050 at once resumed work, their bosses having granted their demands, which are for an advance of from one dollar to seven dollars per week in wages.

FORT DODGE, Ia., May 5.—All the coal miners in this vicinity have signed contracts to work during the summer at the usual rate of eighty-five cents per ton. The eight-hour movement cuts no figure at all.

BAY CITY, Mich., May 5.—One hundred and ten painters in this city went on a strike Monday morning for nine hours' work and ten hours' pay. Nine firms have conceded the demands but four others hold out. The painters threaten to have the carpenters and masons called out unless the bosses yield.

READING, Pa., May 5.—The Brooke Iron Company of Birdsboro has notified the employes of its nail factory that a reduction of 10 per cent. in their wages will be made May 15.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 5.—The demand of the cigarmakers of this city for an increase of from fifty cents to one dollar per thousand on the cheaper grades of cigars has been granted by the bosses and a strike averted.

NEW YORK, May 5.—There is but little change in the struggle of the housesmiths and framers' strikes. The housesmiths have about 3,500 men out in this city, Jersey City and Brooklyn for the eight-hour workday, while 400 framers are still striking for an advance of five cents an hour. The lumber handlers and drivers did not order a genuine strike as expected. About 400 foundrymen are out to aid the housesmiths, as are 600 members of the Architectural Iron Workers' union. Lathers to the number of 400 struck for one dollar more a day and were joined by 200 ornamental plasterers. Thus far there are no signs of yielding on either side.

MILWAUKEE, May 5.—Eighteen hundred union carpenters employed in Milwaukee will quit work Wednesday in an attempt to enforce their demands for an eight-hour day, minimum wages of 27½ cents an hour and a recognition of the union by the bosses.

CINCINNATI, May 5.—The Covington carpenters have formally declared their strike ended. The decision of the board of arbitration was favorable to their claims.

ELECTIONS IN INDIANA.

Results of the Contests Held in Various Towns of the State.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 5.—Returns from over the state from the village elections are meager. In Dublin failure to fulfill the provisions of the Australian law prevented any election being held, and the old officers will hold over. The issues were purely of local interest and many of them were contested by people's, citizens' and law and order parties.

Returns received show that the republicans were successful in Hope, Hartsville, Elizabeth, Hartford City, North Manchester, Spencer and Renselaer. Democrats won in Scottsburg, Boonville and Winamac. In Mitchell an entire ticket favoring high license for saloons was elected for the first time in the town's history.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., May 5.—Monday the first town election in the oldest town in the northwest, Clarksville, was held. Founded in 1781 by Gen. George Rogers Clark, it received its charter from Virginia. The people never had a voice until this spring, the rule of the town under the old charter annulled by the action of the Indiana legislature, being self-perpetuating. The election resulted in a complete democratic victory.

THE PRESIDENT.

He Is Warmly Received Throughout Northern California.

REDDING, Cal., May 5.—President Harrison and his party made its first portion of their journey in northern California Monday in a rainstorm, the first experience of that kind they have had in the Golden state. The president arose early Monday morning and was the only member of the party to greet the crowd that gathered about the train at Tehama. He was loudly cheered and shook hands with all the people within reach. About half an hour later the train drew up at Red Bluff, where a band was assembled at the station. They gave the president a most enthusiastic welcome. At Redding the president and party were greeted with the national salute and showers of bouquets from a throng of school-children.

ASHLAND, Ore., May 5.—The president and party arrived here shortly after 8 o'clock Monday night and received an enthusiastic welcome. The special committee of the Oregon state legislature boarded the train and welcomed the president to Oregon. After a stop of about thirty minutes at Ashland the presidential special pulled out, preceded by a special train carrying the legislative committee.

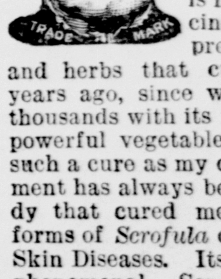
Purify YOUR Blood WITH Hibbard's Herb Extract

A WONDERFUL CURE.



This is a true likeness of me wearing artificial nose and upper lip after Scrofula had consumed my nose and upper lip cured by HIBBARD'S HERB EXTRACT. This is not a patent medicine, but a simple preparation of roots and herbs that cured me over 47 years ago, since when I have cured thousands with its use. It requires a powerful vegetable remedy to effect such a cure as my own, and my argument has always been that the remedy that cured me would cure all forms of Scrofula or other Blood and Skin Diseases. Its success has been phenomenal. Send for list of testimonials and printed history of my case, or call on me any day, or write and describe your case. Advice free.

Much Criticism On The Council For Its Delay.

W. T. VANKIRK'S STATEMENT

He is for Double License—Liquor Dealers Who Have Violated the Excise Laws During the Last Year Will be Refused a Permit.

There is considerable criticism heard today concerning the absentees from the council chamber last night. Just what point the four aldermen who purposely stayed away from the city hall expected to gain has not been revealed. It was quite generally known that Alderman Vankirk was confined to his bed by sickness, and that should the four aldermen fail to appear, no action could be taken on the license question. It is given out as an excuse for their absece that they desired to put Alderman Vankirk on record on the license question, and knowing that he was unable to be present this mode was adopted. Assurance comes to The Gazette from Alderman Vankirk himself, that he is in favor of the high license, and that the low license advocates will be disappointed in placing any hopes on his vote in their behalf.

All saloon licenses now in force expire to-night at midnight. There were many stories afloat, therefore, as to what course Mayor St. John would take. By some it was said that all saloons would be closed until the council met again. A Gazette reporter called on the mayor this morning, and in answer to questions the mayor said:

"I can see what they are aiming at, and they will have to move very carefully or they will strike a snag. While I don't propose to do anything to be vindictive or to indicate spite, I shall nevertheless do my duty. I can see no necessity for breaking the meeting last night. In a few days I shall call a special meeting of the council for the purpose of taking action on the applications for licenses, but I shall not authorize the prosecution of any of the old saloon-keepers for continuing their business after to-day especially those who have applied for a new license; no new saloon can open, however, until a license is granted. When the special meeting of the council is called, if there should be no quorum then we will commence business in earnest. It is a game two can play at. The mere fact that a man has deposited his money does not carry with it the right to open a saloon, no mattter what the custom has been."

Marshal Acheson was seen. "Yes, I have had a consultation with the mayor," he said. "No prosecutions will be instituted against the old saloon keepers who have applied for renewals, until after the next meeting of the council, or until the mayor authorizes me to go ahead. The new saloons will not be allowed to open."

"I would like to be mayor for just one day or a week," said an east side alderman. "I would stop this 'no quorum' business in a way that would be remembered for a long time: I know I am a little vindictive, yet they have commenced it. I would close every saloon to-morrow morning, and I would not call a meeting until the regular meeting two weeks hence. Let 'em go dry for two weeks, and then you could bet on a quorum and win every time. They know they will have to pay four hundred dollars license, and what is the use of dilly-dallling. The only good I can see in the whole agitation is that it opens the way for still higher license next year."

Circulating around among the aldermen the reporter was satisfied that a majority of the council will vote against granting some of the applicants a license, and they will be compelled to retire They will not be allowed to take out a license in the name of the wife or bartender. The license committee consists of Aldermen Childs, Brownell and McKey, and they will report each license to the council separately, voting on each applicant, and not railroading the whole list through as has been the custom. No bonds will be approved until the council takes definite action on the license, and should license be denied, the bond will not be acted on.

NO LICENSES GRANTED.

Lack of a Quorum Makes Aldermanic Action Impossible.

There was no quorum present at the council meeting last evening, consequently the minority adjourned until again called together by the mayor. When the mayor called the council to order and the clerk called the roll, only Aldermen Brownell, Child, Conger, McKey and Trulson answered to their names: Many had assembled to learn the action of the council on the license question, and expressed their disappointment loudly as they left the chamber:

Thirty applicants for license were on the clerk's desk, four of which were for the double license—William Fathers Fardy & Robinson, William Hemming and Isaac Connors.

The horses ran away and converted the reef binders into kindling wood and old iron. Hern sued Maher, won the case in justice court; but was defeated in the circuit court.

NOTES FROM THE ARMORY.

Eighteen soldiers marched and countermarched around the Light Infantry Armory last night. It was the regular drill night of the company, and the boys were drilled for an hour or so by Captain Glass. They are improving rapidly in all branches of the work, under the able instruction of the captain.

Corporal B. H. Warren having left the state, Captain Glass has appointed private Henry Dillenbeck as corporal.

Quarter Master Sergeant George R. Allen has been skirmishing about looking for a suitable rifle range. Owing to the fact that the range must be at least five hundred yards, and that the location must be within marching marching distance of the Armory, and that then must be a hill to stop the bullet, finding suitable ground is not so easy.

An agent of the Pettibone Manufacturing company will be in the city Thursday night to measure the boys for their new fatigue uniforms.

Two recruits were taken into the company last evening, and had their first experience in drilling. Both recruits were spaniel dogs. "Zero" belonged to Captain Glass and "Max" to Charles H. Gage. They marched like old soldiers, and apparently enjoyed it

Lady friends of the members of Washington Camp Number 1, Patriotic Order Sons of America, presented the camp with an elegant new flag at Liberty Hall last evening, Dr. E. L. Schottle responded feelingly to the presentation speech, and thanked the ladies for their kind remembrance.

A literary and musical programme, under the direction of Miss Billings, followed, and among those who took part were Miss Lou Fenton, Miss Etta Brown, Miss Phemie Grant, Miss Nellie Kent, Miss Kittie Fenton, Miss Mabel Pelton, Misses Florence and Genie McDonald, the Pabst sisters and D. H. Billings. After the presentation a supper was served.

A HANDSOME PREMIUM LIST.

Secretary Helmstreet Begins Work on the Rock County Book.

Secretary Heimstreet has commenced work on the premium list for the fair of 1891. The book this year will be the neatest and largest list of the kind ever sent out by any agricultural society in the state. The size of page is almost double that of preceeding years; the cover is to be of heavy enameled paper, lithographed, and is quite tony. Burt says the price of ads in this one will be the same as last year as he wishes to have every merchant in the city represented. There is no doubt of this as an advertising medium, as the books are sent by mail or distributed personally to every house. The book will be ready about the first of June, and will be a beauty.

CLOSE CALL FOR F. F. STEVENS.

A Passenger Train Barely Clears the Wheel of His Carriage.

Major and Mrs. F. F. Stevens had a narrow escape from a serious accident yesterday at the Academy street crossing. The flagman was standing with his flag rolled up in his hand and the major thought the road was clear. He had scarcely started across before a passenger train whizzed by. Turning the horse sharply sidewise the carriage just cleared the train, and a smashup was narrowly avoided.

The human bones exhumed by workmen on the premises of Dr. Q. O. At any rate, the burial was many years after the cemetery was removed to Oak Hill. Mrs. Douglass was killed by a fall.

D. J. CONCANNON IS CIRCULATOR.

He Will Press the Claims of The Gazette Among Local Readers.

D. J. Concannon has been employed to take charge of the circulation of The Gazette. All accounts for the daily should be settled to May 1, and collections will be made by Mr. Concannon the first of every month hereafter.

The paper will appear in a new dress in a few days, and will be the most attractive as well as one of the best inland dailies in the state.

The circulation of both The Daily and Weekly Gazette is larger than at any time during the history of the paper, and under Mr. Concannon's energetic supervission it will steadily increase,

The Weekly Gazette is now an eight-page paper—double the size of the daily, and is conceded to be the best weekly in the state, outside of Milwaukee. It is read by ten thousand people in the county every week, and as an advertising medium for local merchants, has no rival. The advertising columns of the daily speak for themselves.

MAY USE STEAM OR HOT AIR.

Plans For Heating New School Houses Somewhat Changed.

All the members were present at the school board meeting last evening. After adopting the rules of the old board, the commissioners proceeded to business. Bills aggregating $171.88 were allowed; all matters relating to graduating exercises were referred to a special committee consisting of Commissioners Wilson, McLean and Goldin; each member of the graduating class was required to read an essay; the question of employing teachers was referred to a committee of the whole board, and the patronage of the board was ordered divided between the several book-stores of the city. Commissioner Wilson was elected census taker, he receiving six of the seven votes cast. A committee consisting of President Richardson, Clerk Barnham, Commissioner Valentine, Attorneys McElroy and Fethers was appointed to perfect the contract with Messrs. Wray & Blair, the contractors for the new school buildings.

The question of heating apparatus for the new school buildings came up. Steam had been decided upon, but on this point Mr. Haslet, representing the Smead Warming and Ventilating Company, was heard, after which the board adopted a resolution permitting this company which furnishes a hot air system to bid for the heating apparatus, the time for the reception of bids being limited to May 14. The question of fire escapes on the high school building was referred to the building committee, with power to act.

REGATTA ON THE STAGE.

"A Dark Secret" Awaited With Much Interest By Play-Goers.

Janesville play-goers are awaiting with much interest the presentation of "A Dark Secret" Wednesday evennig. The play has become a national success, and scored triumph after triumph. This season entirely new scenery of great beauty has been painted for it, making a series of very elaborate and striking stage pictures. The set presenting the old church at Henley is exceedingly handsome, especially when illuminated for the night effect. The tank has been very much enlarged, thus rendering the realistic water episodes much more telling than previously. A broad sheet of water is now displayed, fully realizing the idea of the river Thames, and depicting the famous stream as closely as can be done on the stage. Two steam launches are now used with other river craft innumerable. In the picturesque night scene these move over the water with colored lanterns, and consititute a most charming and delightful feature, while the excellent singing of a quartette of fine voices adds vastly to the romantic and striking effect.

In the Henley Regatta scene the champion American oarsman, George Hosmer, will row. Incidental to this stirring scene are a number of novel and surprising specialties, performed by popular and accomplished artists, which cannot fail to entertain everybody.

CHANGE AT THE MYERS

Indiana Men Now In Charge of That Hostlery

TRANSFER MADE TO-DAY.

The Interior of the Hotel Will be Remodelled, Bath Room and Barber Shop Removed to the Basement, And Tile Floor Laid.

E. D. Miller, of Elkhart, Indiana and A. G. Paddock, of Union City, in the same state, are now the proprietors of the Myers House.

The transfer was effected to-day and next week the new proprietors will return and the work of remodeling the house, under the supervision of Architect Oscar Cobb, of Chicago, will be begun. The new firm will spare no expense to make the Myers House one of the most handsome and complete hotels in the state.

C. N. Brisco, to whose perserverance the present popularity of the house with commercial tourists and the public generally is due, will remain with the new firm, although he has received several offers to take charge of hotels in other places.

Next week workmen will begin the work of transformation. A new tile floor, of a very pretty design, will take the place of the hard wood in the office, and new full plate glass will probably be put in the front windows. The old office will be partitioned off into a spacious sample room for the display of traveling salesmen's samples, and a finely arranged parlor for the use of ladies. The dining room will be divided off in such away as to provide a commodious butler's pantry, while the barber shop and bath rooms will be removed to the basement. Entrance to the bath room and barber shop will be arranged so that the guests can enter from the outside as well as from the office. The inside entrance will be cut through the hall at the Milwaukee street door and the stairway will go down near the present entrance to the hotel coat room. The barber shop will be put under charge of skilled workmen, and will be fitted up in first class shape. The billiard room will also be refitted and conveniently arranged.

Many of the rooms will be refurnished, and supplied with new furniture and other conveniences.

Another improvement that is talked of is the lighting of the house with electricity—an incandescent lamp in every room in the house.

UNDER THE SHADOW.

Marjorie Fay Brunson.

Little Majorie Fay, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Brunson, passed away at 7 o'clock this morning after a painful illness of nearly two weeks from gastric fever. During the eleven and a half months of her earthly life she had made a large place for herself in the hearts of many friends, and her death will be keenly felt by all, especially by the bereaved father and mother, of whose home her sweet face and bright little life had made her the light and joy. Even the strongest faith is sorely tried by such distress, and the sorrowing ones will have the love and sympathy of warm hearts in their time of need.

Notice of the funeral will be given later.

Mrs. Thomas Goldsborough.

Mrs. Thomas Goldsborough died at her home, 69 Pearl street, at 3.45 o'clock Monday afternoon, aged 28 years. The cause of her death was a severe attack of grip. Mrs. Goldsborough's husband died on July 28th last, and on March 30th last her only child, little Gertie, passed away. The home has truly been one stricken with sorrow.

Funeral services will be held at St. Patrick's church at nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

TRIBUTE TO FATHER CHENEY.

Rock County Sunday Sunday School Workers Speak of His Work.

J. T. Wright, who was reelected president of the Rock County Sunday School Association, reports that the meeting in Edgerton was very successful. Reports from county Sunday schools showed that the Second Congregational church of Beloit still leads all others in attendance and conversions. It is to be regretted that Dr. Higby feels he must give up his pastorate, so successful for twenty-five years.

The memorial service for the late Father Russell Cheney was opened by Rev. D. R. Grover, who paid a glowing tribute to his memory. Their first meeting was at the state convention, held sixteen years ago at Madison, where Father and Mother Cheney sang. Bishop Vincent and many others found the tears trickling down their cheeks as they listened to "Ninety and Nine" and "Nothing but Leaves." The speaker had found Father Cheney a valued friend, always the same, a true earnest christain, there was no one to fill his place. Revs. Sewell, Salmon, Dr. Eaton, Mr. Hollister and others spoke of him as a friend and a christian worker. Letters were read from his former paster, Rev. D. B. Jackson and Mr. Geo. Heild, both of Minneapolis, and President Whitford, of Milton, all regretting their inability to attend the meeting, uniting their voices in testifying to the great loss in his death.

The services were held in the new and beautiful Congregational church in plan not unlike those for the Presbyterian church here.

MERRIMENT IN ARCANUM HALL.

The New Lodge Room Dedicated With Pleasant Merriment.

The new hall of the Royal Arcanum was dedicated last evening with reading, songs and instrumental music. The programme was very nicely arranged and parts were taken by Prof. Emery, Miss Myrtie Shurtleff, Mrs. J. B. Day, George and Carl Buchholz, Miss Dora Randall, George Snyder, Rev. E. L. Eaton, Prof. F. W. Cooley, Ed. Church and George Paris.

The male quartette, consisting of Prof. Cooley, Dr. Eaton, Ed. Church and George G. Paris, sang "Simple Simon Met a Pieman" in a way that caused the audience to clamor for more, and they responded by singing "In Dat Gettin' Up Mornin'."

The entertainment was a complete success in every way, and was enjoyed greatly by all who attended. Ice cream and cake was served after the programme.

The Janesville Inspector Likely To Be Promoted

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION

Stringers on the Cemetery Line Badly Decayed—Came From Rockford to Wed—Street Cars Running On the Milton Avenue Line.

Major Cheney, known equally well in Wisconsin and Illinois, and J. D. King, of this city, are the Wisconsin candidates for the place made vacant by the resignation of Chief Postoffice Inspector Rathbone. Mr. King's name is being well endorsed. Hosts of good men outside of Wisconsin will rejoice with Badgerites if he is selected.

Cemetery Track In Poor Shape.

A more careful inspection of the cemetery division of the street car line discloses the fact that many of the stringers have so far decayed that they will have to be replaced by sound timbers before the road can be put in good shape. Superintendent Blunk estimates that six hundred or a thousand feet of the timbers will be replaced.
